

OMNISCIENT GOD

*Limitless in His knowing
Nothing new to learn- ever
Never forgets - ever*

What a timely chapter for these unprecedented, strange days!

This chapter and these days of uncertainty remind me of an old gospel song:

"I Don't Know about Tomorrow"

*Many things about tomorrow
I don't seem to understand
But I know who holds tomorrow
And I know who holds my hand
Allison Krauss*

"Because God holds all knowledge, we don't have to. Our lives are filled with questions awaiting answers, but not so our omniscient God. He does not suffer the anxiety of not-knowing that plagues our days. All is certainty to Him! The darkness is as light to Him!" page 118

"We need to look to the knowledge of who God is to remove our anxieties. This will mean less time chasing curiosities online and more time mining for treasure in Scripture. Our comfort lies not in holding all knowledge, but in trusting the One who does." page 116

MINE FOR TREASURES

Read the entire chapter of Job 37.

"Stop and consider the wondrous works of God".

Read Isaiah 40 and Daniel 2:19-23

Search for the many communicable and non-communicable attributes of God declared here. Take time to consider, marvel, and worship Him.

Read Isaiah 54:4-10

Praise Him that though He knows our hearts, He chooses to pour out His great compassion, covenantal peace and steadfast love upon us!

"Information Overload" Page 111

Fruits of information overload:

- Irritability, anger, lethargy, listlessness, sleeplessness, high blood pressure
- Inability to make decisions

- Kills empathy

Time for Reflection

- What am I giving my time and attention to these days?
- Will these things make me more Christ-like, help me love my Savior more, remember the treasures and truths of Scripture?
- What specific step can I take today, to spend more time marveling at “the wondrous works of him who is perfect in knowledge”? Job 37:16
- How does the knowledge that God is omniscient help me renew my mind and consider the days ahead?

Our Omniscient Savior

“Now we know that You know all things and do not need anyone to question you;
this is why we believe that you came from God.”
John 16:30

“Lord, You know everything; you know that I love You.” John 21:17

“But God shows His love for us in that while we were still sinners, Christ died for us.” Romans 5:8

Read Isaiah 11:1-5

“And to us who have fled for refuge to lay hold upon the hope that is set before us in the gospel, how unutterably sweet is the knowledge that our Heavenly Father knows us completely.

No talebearer can inform on us, no enemy can make an accusation stick;
no forgotten skeleton can come tumbling out of some hidden closet to abash us and expose our past; no unsuspected weakness in our characters can come to light to turn God away from us, since He knew us utterly before we knew Him and called us to Himself in the full knowledge of everything that was against us.”

A.W. Tozer, The Knowledge of the Holy

*God omniscient, God all knowing in his wisdom does ordain
Every working of creation to the glory of his name
Who his thoughts can dare to fathom, who is judgements can contain
None his equal, unassailable, He our God who ever reigns “God Omniscient, God All Knowing”
Matt Boswell vol II*
