Jeremiah 32:16-27

Jeremiah 51:15-16

- Name and marvel at the many awesome attributes of our Almighty God.
- How does God specifically use His power and numerous attributes to provide for and guide His children?

“Since the fall, each of us is a power broker, looking for ways to use and amplify power for our own ends.” page 128

“But we have this treasure in jars of clay,
to show that the surpassing power belongs to God
and not to us.”

Questions for Reflection

- Where am I thinking and acting like I am an owner of power rather than an entrusted steward of God's power?
- How do I use my power to self-elevate rather than serve God and people?
- Do I control my God-given resources, or do they control me?
- Where do I need to repent of speaking death to those around me?
- What steps can I take to speak life?

“Death and life are in the power of the tongue,
And those who love it will eat its fruits.”

Proverbs 18:21

Our Savior's example:

“No one takes it from me but I lay it down of my own accord.”

God omniscient, God all knowing in his wisdom does ordain
Every working of creation to the glory of his name
Who his thoughts can dare to fathom, who his judgements can contain
None his equal, unassailable, He our God who ever reigns

God all keeping, omnipresent, in the passing days of man
First to last, not one forgotten by his strong and steering hand
He the Sovereign Lord now praise we, he the fount of Providence
On his word we rest unwavering, yes his perfect word shall stand

God omnipotent and mighty, inexhaustible his strength
Governments and fleeting powers, melt before his majesty
How unsearchable his greatness, how inscrutable his ways
Sing his greatness and preeminence over all created things

God unchanging, ever-faithful, to his covenant of grace
We his people Christ did ransom, to the glory of His name
Now ascribe unending worship, now ascribe immortal praise
To the God whose kingdom cometh, blessed be his matchless name
